Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: The Applicant argues that the cited art fails to teach or suggest duplicating an object. However, Streetfighter Collection clearly shows the same object (a fighter) being duplicated. The dummy object disclosed in Streetfighter Collection is an image of the fighter at a previous time frame, which makes the dummy object a duplicate of the figher at that moment in time. The Examiner notes that the claims are silent with regard to the orienation and timing of the duplicate object; the claims merely state the object is duplicated. Regarding the Applicant's argument that Streetfighter Collection fails to teach drawing the duplicate object in a higher lighteness, the screenshot on page 3 clearly shows the the dummy object being drawn in a higher lightness.
